

MBC-Facts: Businesses

Acquisition, takeover and succession plan

To take on and overcome entrepreneurial challenges is part of the daily lives of owners, directors and managers. However, today entrepreneurs are also confronted with various administrative and (finance-) strategic problems that distract from the real core business and bind resources.

MBC offers extensive support, so you and your employees can fully concentrate on the essentials.

When acquiring or taking over a company it is necessary to act target-oriented and strategically. After analyzing the initial situation, a multitude of decisions have to be made to lead a future-oriented and successful business.

Be it obtaining permits, the first shareholder meeting, strategic tax planning or implementation of merchandise management and accounting systems: the experts of MBC are by your side with their extensive expertise and experience.

When implementing and planning succession plans, it is also necessary to take on all important areas strategically and with a plan in mind, in order to have a smooth transition. We offer extensive service in the fields of administration, finance and tax planning or legal advice.

MBC supports you in:

- Acquisition and takeover of companies
- Mergers
- Setting up succession plans
- Implementation of administrative processes
- Finance and tax planning
- Dealing with authorities, obtaining applications and permits
- Implementation of accounting and merchandise management systems
- Legal matters
- Searching for property
- Recruiting
